

2018 Housing & the Economy Conference SPEAKERS

CHERYL YOUNG is a Senior Economist at Trulia who examines how housing policy affects local housing markets and housing trends. Prior to Trulia she was a consultant with the World Bank's Urban Development Unit. She has also served as an associate with Bankable Frontier Associates' housing finance practice, led a housing research program at the Centre for Development Finance — a think-tank in India, and was a project manager for New York City's Department of Housing Preservation and Development. Young holds a Ph.D. in City and Regional Planning from U.C. Berkeley, a master's degree in public policy from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government, and a bachelor's in urban studies from Columbia University.
Connect || @peekabooworld || @Trulia

KOL PETERSON is an ADU expert based in Portland, Oregon, who has helped catalyze the exponential growth of ADUs in Portland over the last decade through ADU advocacy, education, consulting, policy work, and entrepreneurship. He is the author of Backdoor Revolution-The Definitive Guide to ADU Development. He is the owner of Caravan- The Tiny House Hotel, the first tiny house hotel in the world, and organizer of Portland's popular ADU Tour. He consults with homeowners about ADUs on their property, and teaches ADU classes for homeowners and for real estate agents in Oregon, Washington, and California. He edits and manages AccessoryDwellings.org, BuildinganADU.com, pxdadu.blogspot.com, and AccessoryDwellingStrategies.com. Peterson has a master's degree in environmental planning from Harvard's Graduate School of Design. Prior to his ADU work, he worked in the federal government for ten years in Washington, DC and Portland, Oregon.
Connect || www.buildinganadu.com

STOCKTON WILLIAMS was appointed Executive Director of the National Council of State Housing Agencies in March 2018. He has held senior leadership positions in the private, public, and nonprofit sectors throughout a career dedicated to expanding housing opportunity. Williams was previously executive vice president of content and executive director of the Terwilliger Center for Housing at the Urban Land Institute (ULI). Before joining ULI, he was Managing Principal of HR&A Advisors' Washington, D.C., office. He previously served as Senior Advisor in the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and the U.S. Department of Energy. He has also held senior leadership positions at Enterprise Community Partners, Living Cities, and with an affordable housing developer. Williams holds a master's degree in real estate development from Columbia University and a bachelor's in religion from Princeton University.
Connect || @HomeEverything