LENDER NOTICE

Staff Update

February 15, 2022

Introduction

This lender notice relates to New Hampshire Housing staff news.

Summary

New Hampshire Housing is pleased to announce that Julie Jussif will become the Managing Director of our Homeownership Division later this month, succeeding Ignatius MacLellan, who is now the Managing Director of our Management and Development (multi-family) Division.

As the Director of Secondary Markets and Financial Analysis in our Finance Division, Julie has worked with the Homeownership team for a number of years, and helped develop and guide Homeownership's programs and policies, conducted in-depth program analysis, created performance models, and managed the loan pooling process and interest rate hedging strategies.

The New Hampshire Housing Homeownership Team looks forward to continuing to work with all our partners towards our goal of assisting low- and moderate-income households purchase a home.

Please join us in welcoming Julie!
