

NEW HAMPSHIRE HOUSING CONFERENCE SPONSORSHIPS

New Hampshire Housing hosts conferences and seminars that address affordable housing needs in the Granite State. These events cover topics such as homeownership, multifamily housing development, workforce housing, economic trends, and housing advocacy and policy. They provide educational and networking opportunities for attendees.

Sponsorship Opportunities

We invite your company to sponsor the conference series or individual events. Sponsors gain visibility through multiple acknowledgments at the events and in online marketing materials, as well as complimentary registrations. Our conferences attract professionals from the financial, real estate, lending, development, nonprofit and housing sectors, as well as public officials and business leaders.

2025 CONFERENCE SERIES

March 18, 2025 – Homeownership Conference (Concord)

This conference explores ways to support the development of an adequate supply of owner-occupied housing, how to hold conversations within our communities about housing concerns and examines different types of housing being successfully built in the state.

Quarterly 2025 - Multifamily Housing Quarterly Seminars (Bedford & Hybrid)

This quarterly speaker series brings industry leaders together to explore key issues, trends, and innovations in multifamily development. Each session provides valuable insights, fosters meaningful discussions, and offers opportunities for professionals to learn from experts and network with peers.

October 16, 2025 – Housing & Economy Conference (Concord)

This annual conference explores the state and national housing markets and their impact on the economy. Featuring prominent speakers, it draws over 300 professionals from financial, real estate, lending, development, nonprofit housing-related organizations, as well as public officials.
